MOTION TO DISSOLVE TEMPORARY INJUNCTION AND REVISE PRESERVATION ORDER

Defendants move under Tenn. R. Civ. P. 54.02 and 65 for the Court to:

1) Remove the language pertaining to inspection, collection, and testing of evidence in Section III.A of the order because it threatens to reveal the identity of the State's lethal injection supplier and puts Defendants at risk of violating a federal court preservation order;

2) Dissolve the temporary injunction requiring access to counsel and a tablet in a private hospital because Plaintiff Christa Pike has been discharged back into TDOC custody, rendering these issues moot; moreover, the relief was granted without due process; and

3) Revise its October 10, 2026 order to remove Attorney General Jonathan Skrmetti from its ambit because he is shielded by sovereign immunity and no current (or threatened) claims against him justify the relief ordered.

In support of this motion, Defendants invite the Court to consider the accompanying memorandum of law.

Respectfully submitted,

JONATHAN SKRMETTI
Attorney General and Reporter
